

EDT Privacy Policy: Face-to-Face Routes into STEM course

At EDT, we are committed to protecting your personal information when you work with us, and whenever you provide such information we are legally obliged to use your information in line with all applicable laws concerning the protection of personal data, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

To take part in the EDT's programmes we require data to be collected and processed as part of signing up to the programme.

For the purpose of this programme, we also work with partner organisations including University Partners, College Partners and Industry Partners and HEAT (Higher Education Access Tracker)* and may share your data with them.

*The HEAT Service is used to track (and therefore evaluate) 'outreach' activities that are designed to encourage students from a wide spectrum of backgrounds into higher education. If you are a participant in these education outreach activities, it is important that you understand what personal information about you is being recorded on the HEAT system, why it is needed and how long it will be stored for. Please read their Data privacy information for participants in education outreach activities webpage for full details.

You can view EDT's privacy notice here: <https://www.etrust.org.uk/privacy-notice>

The data collected for the purpose of communication, programme delivery and monitoring and evaluation includes:

- Full name
- Date of birth
- Home postcode
- School or college name
- Gender
- Email address
- Parent's full name
- Parent's email address

By your son/daughter/ward participating in this course you are agreeing to allow EDT and our university, college and industry partners to keep in touch with them regarding future opportunities that may interest them. You can remove your consent at any time by emailing studentrecruitment@etrust.org.uk and providing the student's full name and date of birth
